

"No temptation has seized you except what is common to man. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can stand up under it" (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Sexual immorality is a sin not only against God but against our own bodies which are the temple of the Lord (1 Corinthians 6:18) and a person who is impure or immoral has no inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God. The person who violates God's commands concerning such realizes, too late, that they have "lost" a most precious possession which can only be given away once. You can never get it back or be able to give this precious gift to her God-given spouse at the proper time.

Today's society says very little about the pricelessness of morality and they readily sacrifice it on the altar of "fun." Some do not want to be considered "odd" and others think that this is how they will find God's will. In every case, however, it is selfishness that has made them disobey God and the consequences are irreversible. Don't deceive yourself into believing that the gratification of the moment will make up for that loss, or that we can get away with it. For God will not be mocked. It is important to remember that neither dating nor courtship is mandated in Scripture. Scripturally speaking, the result of the process—godly Christian men and women marrying and raising families to the glory of God—is far more important. Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

The Music Industry and the Hidden Backgrounds

Ever since I gained initial consciousness that pop culture is infecting our minds, I've been shocked by how many rap and pop songs are about a rapper "wanting it" and a luscious woman "giving it".

It surprised me, that all these women want themselves to be treated as sex objects or how all the rappers just go on about being rich, wanting sex or how much sex they get, or all combined. You don't have to believe in God, or any belief for that matter, to see the truth behind all this.

All you need to do is look at today's teenagers, really. Pretty much every kid has forsaken the simplest morals, empathy and compassion. Everyone's goals are to become rich & famous, saving no means to achieve them.

People have become utterly superficial with no will to seek for compassion or emotion; instead they focus on "living in the moment" and fulfilling carnal desires.

Conforming as the dead fish that goes with the flow, for the sake of not feeling lonesome.

Spiritual beliefs step in at this point.

Again, it's clear that the ones responsible for this are rich, influential men who want to manipulate us for many reasons. Let us assume it's Illuminati that we're talking about, and I have no reason to believe it's not. We all know the ultimate goal of this 'secret' fraternity — the extinction of the Church of Christ.

The symbolism hidden in all these artists' material isn't restricted into Masonic themes only.

We've seen and heard their vital priorities: Sex, drugs, rebellion, violence... Simply put, this is sin and corruption of the mind and soul.

The Illuminati men have infected most of the present generations with sin and the will to rebellion against the Almighty Lord via their 'day-by-day-less-subtle' agenda. God gave us free will, all evil in the world has been chosen by man. Man is given the gift of having a choice of which path to walk. Evil has a reason. Don't they always say we need to learn from our mistakes? Well that's what it is! And there also is a balance between good and evil. Evil can't exist without good and good without evil. The ying and the yang. Everything has its opposite's, right?

Pretty much our life here on earth is being tested to see if we can resist the temptations of the material world. If so then we will enter heaven, if not well you know. God tests us to see if we are worthy to enter heaven.

The Right Time For Godliness

“Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring thee into judgment. Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity. Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain: In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and all the daughters of musick shall be brought low; Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, and the mourners go about the streets: Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return unto God who gave it.” Ecclesiastes 11:9-12:7).

DATING AND COURTSHIP

The goal of dating is finding a life partner. Courtship begins after a decision to marry one another. The words "courtship" and "dating" are not found in the Bible, but we have biblical principles to guide Christians in their preparations for marriage. The first is that we must separate from the world's view on dating because God's way contradicts the world's way. Even among Christians there are differences as to whether you should or should not date but Christian teens should still know God's perspective and the dangers associated with dating. Dating is supposed to be based on love, so let's take a look at God's definition of love in His Word from 1 Corinthians 13:4-7. “Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.” The word "love" is thrown around with little thought. While there are many definitions of love, 1 Corinthians tells us how God defines love. What a lot of people who are dating nowadays are convinced is love is actually just lust of the flesh. Many young people have been misled and brainwashed through magazines, TV shows, and movies that tell you how you're young, and you should date a lot of people before you get married. You even see certain "role models" jumping from one dating relationship to another. Yet God has more in store for you than that. We need to realize that God means for us to meet the ONE person that we are meant to marry which is why we should preserve our innocence because it's a gift from God and shouldn't be given away cheaply. When the time for marriage comes we should be sure that we are guided by genuine love, but not be the shallow version of love. God is also clear on who a Christian should marry (2 Corinthians 6:14-20), and the importance of preserving personal purity throughout the process leading to marriage. So a love that leads to defilement would clearly not be the same love that the bible talks about as true love is not self-centered but wants to protect others and would therefore make us want to abstain from such intimate relationships that may lead to moral ruin prior to the wedding day. God does not allow on us temptations that are beyond what we can handle.
